

News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

With this issue of the Herald we are starting this column as a regular feature with some misgiving as we are well aware of how regularly a weekly thing of this sort comes around, but we feel there is a need for a place to put bits of news, information and opinions that do not seem to fit in the regular news columns of the paper.

I can not think of a better time to start this column than now that the second annual Rodeo has come to a successful close. It gives us an opportunity to compliment the Hamlin Riding Club on a fine, well organized show.

As with all shows or events dealing with a large number of people, both performers and spectators, the average person seated in the stands has no idea of the tremendous amount of work that such a show as this requires.

From the months of planning and arrangements that must be made down to cleaning up the mess after it's over, a large number of people must give freely of their time and talents. Although the rodeo was far from a one-man show, we especially commend the organization's president, La Foy Patterson for a job well done. Of all of the thousands of details and the major problems that were encountered, the final decisions must come back to him.

With about three times as many riders as there were horses and bulls we thought the arena directors did a fine job of keeping the show moving.

As far as the average fan is not knowing how much work is involved in a show of this kind, we doubt that all of the club members know just how hard their officers have worked. This is probably fortunate since the club will have to find a new slate of officers for next year. Curtis Dodd, manager of the Safeway store here, started a two-week vacation last week and we understand that before he left he gave J. R. Rhoton, who will manage the store in his absence, a dollar bill and told him to buy coffee for all his friends while he was gone. We are not sure whether he was being conservative or just does not have many friends.

Since this column must be written in advance in order that our shop can handle news on up closer to our press time we do not know where the city paying program stands. But we hope that either the money has been turned in or notes signed for the 20 blocks needed to get the program underway.

As was stated in last week's paper, Saturday is the deadline for completing the signing of at least 20 blocks if we are to pave this year.

If you have not made arrangements to have your street paved and would like to have it paved this year, but are waiting for someone to come see you, don't! Contact your neighbors and if they are interested, go by the BCD office and sign-up now.

The Jaycees are trying to get around to see everyone, but like everyone else they have families, jobs and other obligations and the amount of time that can be spent on this project is limited.

It is your street that needs paving and if anyone should be interested in getting it paved it should be you.

The Hamlin Young Farmers will have a watermelon feast Friday evening at the Mid West Cooperative Oil Mill guest house.

Girl's Saddle Race Top Rodeo Event

The second annual Junior Rodeo sponsored by the Hamlin Riding Club was climaxed Saturday night by a thrilling barrel race to determine the winner for the "Best All-Around Cowgirl" saddle. A tie for the honor developed between Nancy Tucker of Wichita Falls and Lynn Wilson of Sweetwater and the girls decided to run the barrels again to break it.

After the last bull was ridden, the barrels were brought back into the arena and both girls made the clover-leaf pattern in 19.1 seconds. After resting their horses for a few minutes they each raced the clock again, this time Miss Tucker's time was 19.0 seconds and Miss Wilson's time was 19.1 seconds.

The "Best All-Around Cowboy" saddle was won by Ronnie Flenniken of Crosbyton in what was also a close race with it taking the rodeo officials sometime to declare Flenniken the winner.

The saddles were awarded to Miss Tucker and Flenniken by LaFoy Patterson, president of the club, in the arena to bring down the curtain on the final performance of this year's show.

The Junior Rodeo, which was greatly expanded from its beginning last year, was launched by a big street parade through downtown Hamlin Thursday afternoon. The parade, led by the Hamlin High School Pied Piper band, was highlighted by several beautiful floats, a number of area riding clubs, and included over 150 mounted riders.

At the first performance of the rodeo the Fisher County Sheriff's Posse was awarded a trophy as the best riding club in the parade. Second place went to the Palomino-riding Haskell County Sheriff's Posse. (See RODEO on page 5)

Classes begin at 8:40 and three periods are held before dismissing for lunch at 11:30 a.m. The four afternoon periods are held between 12:15 and 4:00 p.m. Six 55 minute periods and one 45 minute period will make up the new daily routine.

A new teacher has been added to the faculty and one teacher has moved up from her position in junior high. Huron Polnac Jr. will teach English and serve as high school librarian. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and Southwestern Theological Seminary with a major in English. Mrs. Everett Gibson, who has been teaching math in the seventh and eighth grades for several years will teach high school social studies.

Students who will be in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades this year and did not attend Hamlin schools last year are requested to pre-register at the junior high school Monday or Tuesday (August 22-23) between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m., according to Marvin D. Carlton.

A new member of the junior high faculty is A. P. Williams who comes to Hamlin from Port Lavaca where he taught in the Calhoun County High School. He will teach math.

Other faculty members and the subjects they will teach are as follows: Mrs. E. N. Jenkins, language arts; Miss Lola Milstead, math; Mrs. C. W. Griggs, art; Mrs. S. C. Ferguson Jr., science; John Adams, social studies; Mrs. Joe Lewis, language arts; Leslie Fambrough, physical education; Mrs. Wilard Maberry, public school music and Tim Jones, band.

Beginning pupils must have a birth certificate and immunization records before entering school. Records in the primary and elementary grades will run much the same as last year.

One new teacher was added to the primary faculty. Mrs. Leldon Clifton will teach in the second grade. She has had several years experience in the primary field. She and her husband and two boys moved to Hamlin from Iraan this summer.

The first general faculty meeting is set for 10:00 a.m. on Friday August 26.

Council Approves City Master Plan

A "Master Plan" to be developed by Freese, Nichols and Endress of Fort Worth was approved by the Hamlin City Council at its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night.

The plan would entail a study of the city's past growth, its present resources and project a outline for future development based on the city's potential growth. The completed project would take about a year's work and would be based on the next 25 years.

The Hamlin Board of Community Development has been urging the plan's adoption for several months. It was first presented to the council during the past administration and it was decided to delay a decision until after the new councilmen took office.

In a letter to the council, B. V. Newberry, BCD president, expressed the disappointment of the directors that the council had not taken on the plan up to this time. He also stated that his organization represented the majority of the tax payers of the city and that they felt that the council should take action now.

Most of the council expressed the opinion that pressing of the new fiscal year was the reason for not bringing up the plan earlier.

The BCD was represented at the meeting by Orville Roland, manager, Johnny Bryant and Bob Riddel.

The plan will cost the city between $6,000 and $7,000 and will be payable over a three year period.

Other action taken by the council:

Authorized the publication of an advertisement for bids for the construction of curb and gutter, grading, soil-cement base course and asphaltic surface treatment on the city streets of Hamlin. The bids are to be opened at 1 p.m. September 2.

The council decided to put the City Park back under the supervision of General Superintendent and also are planning a stepped up work program for the park.

Approved sending Police Chief J. L. McCurdy to a Police School in Austin August 21-23.

DISTRICT ROAD BOND ISSUE APPROVED

Voters of Road District No. 1 of Jones County approved the issuance of $200,000 in bonds to pay the county's share of right of way costs to improve Highway 380 from the Shackelford County Line to Stamford, and to build a four-lane freeway on Highway 277 from Stamford to Anson.

Only 32 Hamlin voters went to the polls in the Saturday voting with 23 of them for the bonds and nine against. The West box vote was 18 for and 5 against, while the East box vote was 5 for and 7 against.

The total vote in the eight boxes was 326 in favor of issuing the bonds and 74 against.

Voting in the other boxes was as follows:

Stamford: East box, 108 for, 5 against. West box, 115 for, 13 against.

Dial Telephone Switch Set for Sunday Morning

Hamlin's new $200,000 dial telephone system will come to life at 1:01 a.m. next Sunday morning. This announcement was made this week by Gene Adkisson, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company manager.

Adkisson explained the reason for the early morning hour conversion was to coincide with other towns being converted to dial systems and to tie in with the nation's Long Distance telephone network.

"At present time Long Distance operators can't dial telephone calls from out of town to Hamlin," the Manager said, "but when our dial system comes to life they will be able to do it. So, we notify all Long Distance operators that at 1:01 a.m. Sunday morning any calls coming from out of town to here can be dialed."

Adkisson said customers will know the new dial equipment is in operation when they pick up their telephones and hear the characteristic "hum" to the dial telephone. He emphasized that customers should not try to dial until the new system goes into operation early Sunday morning. The change means everyone in Hamlin gets a new telephone number beginning with the prefix or central office name "Spring 4."

These new numbers are designated to fit into the national telephone numbering system, which eventually will make it possible for everyone to dial his own out-of-town telephone calls. Directories listing all new numbers have already been sent to customers here.

Installing the new dial equipment in Hamlin has been a big job, even for the telephone company. The manager mentioned there was no such thing as a "mass produced telephone exchange" and that each dial system is tailored-made for the community it serves.

"After 1:01 a.m. Sunday morning Hamlin will have an up-to-date telephone system that is equal to any other system in the Southwest," he said.

Adkisson also said the company is presently making plans to hold a city-wide open house to show off the new telephone equipment. He said the dates for the affair would be announced in the near future.

'Mystery Farm' Still a Mystery

The "Mystery Farm" is still a mystery! Only two persons called the Herald office to identify the picture of last week's farm and two different farms were named. Since the owner of the farm has not contacted the office and the staff does not have the answer, we are hoping that someone will come up with the correct identification this week.

Marion Carter's guess is the Jack Pyron farm, northeast of Hamlin and Miss Odean West believes it to be the Dale Lain place, south of Hamlin.

Are either of these right? We do not know.

MYSTERY FARM OF THE WEEK

Whose farm is this? If you can identify the farm pictured above call or come by the Herald office. The first one identifying the farm will be given a free six months subscription to the Herald. The operator of the mystery farm will receive a beautiful mounted enlargement of the original photo, if he will call at the Herald office.

Paving Program Deadline Nears

With the deadline for signing up 20 city blocks to be paved only three days away, the latest report from the BCD office shows eight blocks ready to turn over to the city, 11 blocks that the owners have agreed to pave, but have not all turned in their money or signed notes, and numerous blocks where there are only one or two lots not committed.

Elsewhere in this issue of the paper is a legal notice by the city seeking bids on the paving. A 14 day waiting period after the notice is printed is required before bids can be opened which will set the opening date on September 2.

In the event that the 20 required blocks are not completed by Saturday the city will have to withdraw the project.

Those who do wish to have their street paved, but have not put up the money or signed a note are urged by the BCD office to please do so as soon as possible so that they can turn the 20 blocks over to the City.

The city engineer must have the information on the blocks to be paved to complete the plans for the firms to base their bids on.

Rainfall Here Measured at 6.56 Inches

August 20, 1920
Bids for handling of the funds of the Hamlin Independent School District for the year 1920 and 1921 will be received by the School Board not later than Monday, August 30, 1920. Signed: W. E. Bensno, President. H. D. Neff, Secretary.
There is coming a time when Hamlin people will say, "we would be glad to get a rain like that which we got in August, 1920." If so, they would get 6.56 inches. Sunday it began to rain slightly and continued all a tennoon, and gradually grew into a steady down-pour by Monday. The report according to weather reporter, Judge Brains, was 5.20 inches. Tuesday .51 inches and Wednesday .85 fell. Thursday was the first lay for sunshine this week.

Two different kinds of dollars are existent today, each having widely different purchasing powers.
A "commodities" dollar spent for food, clothing, building materials, labor or other necessities and luxuries will buy only about 52 cents worth of what it would before the war.
But an "investment dollar" spent buying well selected stocks and bonds, will buy a return in the shape of interest nearly what $1.50 would in pre-war days.

The Hamlin Fire Department are proud to announce, that they are sponsoring the Original Willard the Wizard Show in Hamlin for a three day engagement. The big new tent was erected yesterday just off the Stamford Highway on the lot adjoining the skating rink.
Willard is world famed, and is acclaimed the world over as being one of the outstanding Magicians of the present day.

Junior Hallmark fell last Monday and broke both bones of his left arm just above the wrist.
His mother, Mrs. Odie Hallmark, entertained him and a number of his little friends with a birthday party.
Noah's cake and fruit drinks were served to the many guests and gifts were presented to Junior who was six years old.
John C. Turner and son, J. C. went to Waco Wednesday to make arrangements for J. C. to enter Baylor University at the opening of the fall term. They were accompanied home by Misses Mary and Florence Boyd, who were students during the summer in Baylor University.
Tate May, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Rister, of Norman, Oklahoma, left Sunday for San Antonio, and other points in South Texas. At Coleman, he was joined by his wife and son, James Tate, who had spent a few days there visiting relatives.

15 YEARS AGO—
School Registration Starts September 6

August 24, 1945
We guess that one of the happiest boys ever to return from the European war area is S.Sgt. John Howard Jr.
Long before Pearl Harbor Day came, John was at peace, strictly attending his business in the Market of his Dad's Model Grocery. All he wanted was to a successful business man, maybe some day get married, you know; but on March 9, 1941 Uncle Sam said, "Come on, John, and get in there and into the Army John went.
Work. A war is to be won." So By 1943 he had learned a lot, advanced in rank, and was up in Massachusetts, waiting to go somewhere. He left in February 1943, got a landing spot in Africa, went on up through Italy, France, Germany and finally to Antwerp, Belgium where he found a boat and orders to start for Texas. He also traveled more and served his country.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—Election year upheavals plus Texas "lame duck law" are playing havoc with the work of interim legislative committees.
Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled that, except in special cases, interim committee members not re-elected to the Legislature may not continue to serve on the committees. This brings up a shake-up in the membership of a number of study groups now in the midst of their work.
Biggest change will be in the make-up of the House General Investigating Committee which has been asked to look into several politically touchy questions. Going off the five-member committee are the chairman, Rep. H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, and Reps. Joe Burkett of Kerrville and Carl Conley of Raymondville.
Nine other legislative committees lost one or more members who either did not run again or were defeated.

Not affected were members of the commission on State and Local Tax Policy. Attorney General noted that this group was set up under a law which specifically provided its members should serve a two-year term.
Also continuing to serve, whether re-elected or not, will be those members of the Legislative Council and Legislative Board who—like the Speaker of the House—are members because of the jobs they hold.
In the appointment of committees on which "lame ducks" may not continue to serve, next year's speaker and lieutenant governor face a problem. Only way to prevent vacancies would be to second-guess the political future of each appointee.
YOUTH CRIME RISE SEEN—Juvenile delinquency in Texas will get worse before it gets better, the Texas Youth Council director predicted.
Dr. James Turman presented to the Legislative Budget Board the Council's request for an appropriation of $4,235,470 for the coming biennium. This is an increase over the present two-year allocation of $3,487,442.
A part of this increase is to build for future needs. Turman noted that the Gatesville Training School for Boys had 403 boys in 1950 compared to its present average of 1,300. He predicted an average population of 1960 during the coming two years and 2,959 by the end of the sixties.
Turman also urged the setting up of a system of paid parole supervisors "to keep some of these kids from coming back." He said that some of the boys had been to Gatesville as many as five times and that up to one-third were repeaters.
ANTI-LOAN SHARK COMMITTEE—A citizens committee is being formed to work for approval of a constitutional amendment to give the legislature more regulatory power over the small loan industry.
Abner V. McCall, executive vice president of Baylor University, is chairman, and Tom Reavley, Austin attorney and former secretary of state, is vice chairman.
Proposed amendment will be Number Four on the general election ballot in November. It would give the Legislature power to license and regulate lenders and set maximum rates of interest. Until and unless the Legislature set a new rate, the present constitution maximum of 10 per cent would apply.
Adoption of Amendment 4 is an essential first step, said McCall, to wiping out Texas' reputation as "the lone shark state." He said that Gov. Price Daniel, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and Attorney Will Wilson favored the amendment and were honorary members of the committee.
TEC HITS CHEATERS
Texas Employment Commission has filed complaints against some 100 persons accused of drawing unemployment compensation pay while actually working.
As a result of a widespread investigation, TEC has filed several score suits against persons it declared were receiving benefits and salaries at the same time.
Some of the defendants have already been tried, fined and ordered to repay the money received from TEC. Most of the cases involve workers in Houston and Brownsville.
Law provides that workers who lose their jobs through no fault of their own and cannot get other jobs may receive $28 a week for up to 26 weeks, while unemployed. Violators can receive up to a $50 fine and 30-day jail sentence.

LAWBREAKING ON INCREASE—Department of Public Safety report shows that one of the fastest growing statistics in Texas is the number of major crimes committed—up 10.3 per cent for the first half of 1960.
For the first six months of this year DPS estimates 96,681 major crimes were committed in Texas, compared to 87,679 for the same period in 1959.
One of the brighter spots in the report is that murders and homicides decreased by 15.1 per cent. Burglaries, however, rose 19.2 per cent.
Largest crime increase was in urban areas—up 12.5 per cent. In rural sections the rate was down a little—less than one per cent.
VACCINATIONS URGED—Texas is one of the safer states as far as paralytic polio is concerned, but it's seventh in the nation in number of whooping cough cases, ninth in diphtheria and scarlet fever.
All these rates could be cut, said a State Health Department spokesman, if there were fewer people who can't be bothered with getting protective shots.
Late August and September are the usual season for polio epidemics, the Department warned.
GOOD PASTURAGE—Texas range conditions showed a bigger mid-summer improvement this year than in any summer for 37 years, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
Range conditions usually grow less favorable from July to August in Texas, but this year they got substantially better.
Though some areas of the state were reported very dry, 85 per cent was rated 12 points above the 10-year average.
SHORT SNORTS—Parents of children who will enter school for the first time this fall are urged to get the children's birth certificates immediately. State Health Department noted that requests pile up at school opening time and can delay the child's entrance into school.
Texas' general revenue went $6,000,000 deeper into the red last month. This brought the fund's deficit up to $59,061,860.
Mrs. J. S. Norton will attend a reception and banquet for sales representatives of Field Enterprises Educational Corporation at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas Friday evening.
The all expense paid trip was made possible through points received from the volume of book sales made by Mrs. Norton. She will return Saturday.

State Fair to Exhibit Use of Farm Chemicals
The Agricultural Show at the 1960 State Fair of Texas, October 8-23, will have as its theme "better foods through the wise use of agricultural chemistry."
The central exhibit which will be the focal point of the Agricultural Building at the State Fair will show the different ways agricultural chemicals are used on modern farms and ranches.
It will show how chemicals are used as fertilizers to make plants more healthy and increase their yield, as fungicides to treat seeds and soils, as herbicides to kill weeds and other unwanted plants, as insecticides, as pesticides to safeguard stored crops, and in animal health and nutrition to assure healthy livestock.
The exhibit will explain why agricultural chemicals are essential to the mass production of wholesome, flavorful, healthful and tasty foods in today's world. The specialized training required of farmers and ranchers in order to use such chemicals properly and wisely

THE HAMLIN HERALD Thursday, August 18, 1960

will be illustrated in the State Fair Show.
In addition, district exhibits for all sections of Texas ranging from the Panhandle to the Rio Grande Valley will feature the crops and by-products that are raised in each region.
Crops and products that will be featured include wheat, soybeans, sesame and castor beans, grain sorghum, milk, livestock, cotton, wool and mohair, corn and oats, forestry, guar, peanuts, flax and broom corn, rice, citrus fruit and vegetables.

"These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck...but not our Chevy"

Few trucks are subjected to the body-wracking beatings that are part of a day's work for this Chevrolet Series 60 pulpwood hauler. It's owned by J. E. Fox, North Carolina logging contractor. As Bobby Fox, a partner in the business says, "Loaded with pulpwood, we drive over stumps and potholes you'd think would tear the truck to pieces. These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck, but not our Chevy. We can average an extra load a day... make $45 to $50 a day more with this Chevy than we can with the others."

In every weight class these Chevrolets are doing more work at less expense than trucks have ever done before. Drive one at your Chevrolet dealer's. It's an experience that could pay you big dividends.

OUTDOOR IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

Your hunting and fishing licenses expire on August 31.

Together they will cost you $5.30-$2.15 for the fishing license and $3.15 for your hunting permit.

Combined, they cost you no more than the price of four or five lures, or a few boxes of shells. A mighty good investment, I'd say.

Ever stop to think what these licenses mean to you—in pleasure, relaxation, fellowship?

It's a truly great pleasure to hunt and fish. Furthermore, these outdoors activities provide the greatest source of mental and physical relaxation ever conceived. And speaking of fellowship—man, if you want to make friends—hundreds of them—just grab a gun or some fishing gear and head for the woods and lakes. You'll meet more people of all walks of life in the shortest time ever—even before you wet a hook or fire a shell.

And once you rub elbows with them, you'll come to know more immediately than by any other manner of introduction.

Greatest advantage of the great outdoors is the fact that rich and poor look and act alike. There's no "high-toning" when you're roughing it. There is no playing favorites. The millionaire is likely to be the poorest dressed of the lot. Fact of the matter is, it's about the only way he can get out of the "dedey-ducks" and become a down-to-earth fellow, just like the chap across the tracks.

But this five bucks which you pay for those licenses, does something else too. It pays the salaries of trained specialists in wildlife management. It hires biologists, wardens, and other expert personnel for the Game and Fish Commission.

These men do marvelous jobs. They are the one who are largely responsible for the fish and game being with us today—in greater abundance—for all to enjoy. They set up the controls that prolong the life and increase the species of the various types of fish and wildlife.

Furthermore, they do their best to see to it that these controls are adhered to. This for your own hunting and fishing pleasure tomorrow and the tomorrows to come.

A recent article by Ernest Swift in Conservation News, a publication of the National Wildlife Federation, proposes strict controls.

In discussing skills in the art of hunting and fishing, Swift said that one nationally noted hunter had remarked that "prairie chicken hunting was the sport of gentlemen, but that gentlemen had just about disappeared before a rash of gadget-crazed men."

He goes on to say that "State conservation departments will have to take a large share of the blame for making the sport of hunting and fishing the mediocre recreation that it has become." Then he cites motor trolling, put-and-take fishing, pen-released pheasants before the gun, and access roads to every lake, as designed to entice more license buyers."

Swift notes that this has gone so far that reversal seems out of the question. He feels that "American sportsmen should be screened, allowing only the master craftsmen in the field."

His goal, he says, is to bring back dignity and stature to the word "sportsman."

My personal feelings couldn't be farther from his views. Luckily we are in a country where the resources are subject to private enterprises and the public domain is open to all the people.

No man should be denied the right to enjoy this country's resources simply because his skill or adaptiveness in the art of hunting or fishing is below that of some others—so long as that man does not endanger the life or rights of others.

Fortunately no group in this country can force Swift's preferred method of enjoying a sport on those who are doing no harm.

Trolling and game preserve shooting are modern day sports. They are pleasures to be enjoyed by all who wish to participate. They harm no one at all.

I can see comparison of these pastimes with such unlawful practices of catching masses of fish by "telephoning" or netting.

But I do think there is a point along this line that is well worth considering—although perhaps impossible to adopt.

I refer to the proposal made only a few weeks ago—about placing more restrictions on the issuance of hunting licenses as a means of reducing the accidents and deaths that occur in the fields each year.

These restrictions would not be dependent upon any great skill. They would simply require a basic knowledge of guns and ammunition, their limits and effectiveness. Release of the license also would hinge on certification as to the applicant's personal character and his record as a sober, law abiding citizen.

Today's guns are as safe and to such restrictions would be the cost of administration. Second, the reduced income from license sales—due to failure to pass the test. And third, an inevitable drop in services because of the lack of sufficient funds.

On the other hand, which is more important—a human life or a book? It's harder to acquire a card from a public library today than it is to buy a hunting license.

DIAL TELEPHONES BY MANAGER SIMPLE RULES GIVEN FOR USING

Marking a call from a dial telephone is just as easy as giving the number to an operator, and your call goes through faster, according to Gene Adkisson, manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Adkisson said telephone operators are now making calls to customers and giving them dialing instructions. "Some telephone users seem hesitant to try the new system," he said. "I guess maybe they're afraid of making an error. Actually, dialing a telephone is no more difficult than turning on any electrical appliance."

Adkisson also said that part of the secret is to remember to make seven pulls on the dial to complete your call. "Let's assume," he said, "that you were dialing SPing 4-1904. First of all, lift the receiver and listen for the steady buzz of the dial tone. Then put your finger in the hole nearest to letters PRS. Pull the dial wheel over to the finger stop and let it return. Next dial the letter "P" in the same manner, and

PARENTS URGED NOT TO WAIT IN REQUESTING BIRTH RECORDS

Attention parents: It's later than you think.

This comes from W. D. Carroll, state registrar, whose vital statistics staff at the Texas State Department of Health is responsible for handling the flood of requests or birth certificates for children entering school for the first time this September.

Carroll's problem is this: There is a tendency among the parents to put off requesting copies of their youngsters' birth records until the last moment. When too many delay in this manner, the results are obvious: a work overload.

The condition does not result from any lack of effort on the part of Carroll's staff. "Our limited Vital Statistics Division staff—despite long hours of night and week-end work—can process just so many requests before school begins," he explains.

More than 262,000 children are expected to enter elementary schools of Texas for the first time this fall. The estimate is based on calculations made by the Texas Education Agency.

A good many parents—some of whom may have waited too long in past years—have already requested and received birth records on this year's new scholars, but tens of thousands of additional records will have to be processed between now and the time that first school bell rings in September.

More than one youngster has been forced to postpone his first days at school simply because his parents couldn't produce proof of his age when it came time to register him.

Carroll's advice to parents: "Send in your request today to the local registrar, county clerk, or the State Department of Health."

All you have to do is give the date and place of birth, the mother's maiden name, and the name of the father. This information, with the legal fee of one dollar, should be addressed to your local registrar, the county clerk or to the State Department of Health, Section on Records and Statistics, 400 East 5th Street, Austin, Texas.

Something else: Be prepared to show school officials a record of "shots" your youngster has had. Depending on local school board regulations, proof of immunizations against smallpox, whooping cough, diphtheria and other diseases may be required.

Student Price Set For Shrine Bowl Game Saturday

ABILENE—A special student price of $1.00 has recently been established for the West Texas Shrine Bowl professional game to be played here Saturday night in Public Schools Stadium.

The section, designated as E-1 (E-One) and located on the south end of the east stands, will be set aside for students of high school age and under and the non-reserved seats will be sold at the gates for $1.00 each.

The 1,247-seat section was established upon the recommendations of the sponsoring Abilene Shrine Club and Lamar Hunt, owner of the Dallas Texans. The Texans will meet the New York Titans in the game to be played Saturday beginning at 8 p.m.

"We feel that there are many high school students, especially football players, who deserve to see the game and are unable to attend otherwise," stated E. L. Turner, president of the Shrine Club.

The game is the first professional football contest ever to be held in Abilene. All other seats in the 15,042-capacity stadium are reserved and tickets are $5.00 each.

The stadium box office will open Saturday at 6 p.m. with the reserved and student tickets to go on sale at that time. Reserved seats are to be sold in 31 area cities through Friday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Campbell and children of Houston have been visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell and Mr. R. M. Grubb of Hamlin. Mrs. Campbell was formerly Louise Grubb.

BEAUTY AND THE BOSS—Two officials of the Dallas Texans professional football team are anxious to help the Abilene Club promote its West Texas Shrine Bowl game Saturday, Aug. 20 in Abilene Public Schools Stadium matching the Texans and the New York Titans. They are Kay Sutton, Miss Dallas Texan of 1960, and Texan's owner, Lamar Hunt who are shown holding the placard advertising the contest. Tickets for the game are now on sale in Hamlin at King Insurance Agency.

TIME NEARING FOR FARMER TO DECIDE HARVEST METHOD

College Station.—The time for harvesting this year's cotton crop is fast approaching, and the farmer should be considering how this harvesting is to be done. If the crop is to be machine harvested, the problem arises of whether it would be better to own or to hire the machine.

Cecil Parker, extension farm management specialist, says that often it is cheaper to have the crop custom harvested than it is to own the equipment. By hiring the custom work, the farmer can avoid the investment in machinery and use the capital elsewhere in the farm business. The farmer's labor problem is eased if the custom operator furnishes all the labor for the job. Also, because the custom operator is skilled in operating and maintaining the machinery, the farmer may get a faster, more efficient job, Parker points out.

Before deciding on hiring custom work, however, the farmer must make sure that the answer to each of the following questions is "yes." Is equipment for custom work available? Will it be available when I need it? Are the operators dependable and efficient?

A machine may be purchased, however, with the idea of doing custom work in addition to personal work. This would lower the farmer's cost of harvesting his own crop. Parker continues. Other factors, such as alternative use of labor and capital, should be considered before the farmer decided between owning or hiring a machine.

Parker suggests talking with the local county agent before any decision is made.

The sixth annual Range Camp, sponsored by the Texas Section of the American Society of Range Management, will be held at the Texas A&M College Adjunct, Junction, on August 14-20. Bobby Ragsdale, associate extension range specialist, said a main objective of the camp—to be attended by 32 outstanding 4H and FFA members—was to make youth more familiar with the importance of maintaining and improving range conditions in Texas.

Received your notice that my subscription to the Herald was expired. Enclosed check will cover for the new year. Although it has been quite a few years since I left Hamlin, I still enjoy reading about the people I once knew. Of course it is sorrowing to read about the passing of the old timers who lived and worked in Hamlin through the years to make the pleasant little town that is today. (We visited there in 1958 and were pleased to see how the town had grown.)

The new format of the Herald has certainly improved the paper and I hope that you have continuous success with your paper.

Sincerely,

LETTER FROM LYNDON JOHNSON

By Lyndon B. Johnson
August 2, 1960
Fellow Americans:
Lady Bird and I have just come back to the ranch from one of the most exciting days of our lives and we want to share some of our experiences with you.

Aboard the plane that carried us almost 5,000 miles we talked to the ranch from Texas newspapers, radio stations and television stations.
Twelve of these people represented weekly papers. You would have been proud of the way they read Texas good will everywhere we traveled.

The big turbo-prop Viscount put us down first in Kansas City. I had lunch there with the Grand Old Man of the Democratic Party—Harry Truman.

He's lost none of the fire and steel of his soul that made him one of our most colorful and decisive Presidents.

Someone asked Mr. Truman
what he thought of the Democratic ticket. "It's a winner for sure," he said. "What do you think of the Rep. Convention, Mr. President?" another reporter asked.

"Worst in history," Mr. Truman replied.

The outreach of Hurricane Brenda delayed our arrival in Hyannis, Massachusetts for my conference with Senator Kennedy. The pilots—Captain Reuben Cage, of Blanco, Tex. and First Officer Jerry Dickson of El Paso—who became father of a new baby girl during the trip —brought us in for a perfect instrument landing when the visibility was only 175 feet.

Senator Kennedy and I sat up until 1:00 a.m. We talked about the program for the people we believe Congress will enact during the remaining weeks of the session, the coming campaign (Senator Kennedy accepted my invitation to come to Texas), and we also compared gray hairs. After the young men had gone to bed, I stayed up and worked until 3:30 a.m.

Lady Bird "took" to the Kennedy's home. It is a large, comfortable, pleasant house on Cape Cod. Jacqueline has furnished it with early American antiques and I almost didn't get Lady Bird away from her inspection tour in time for the press conference.

Before we left Saturday, Senator Kennedy and Jackie came aboard our press bus and told our folks how happy they were that Texas had sent such a fine group of men and women on the trip.

Saturday afternoon we were in Nashville, Tennessee where we were guests of Governor and Mrs. Buford Ellington.

I spoke that night to a Democratic rally of ten thousand people and when Governor Ellington introduced me, he had to send his State Troopers out in the crowd to ask the folks to stop applauding. Governor Ellington told me that Tennessee hadn't seen a turnout like that "in a long, long time."

Every Southern state was represented and the Governors of Florida, North Carolina, Alabama, Virginia and Kentucky predicted a sweeping victory in November.

More than ten thousand people waited under the hot sun in Monticello, Iowa when we arrived there Sunday afternoon. Their enthusiasm got the best of me and I spoke for one hour—interrupted 61 times by applause. They listened attentively as I outlined the vigorous action I hope the Democratic Administration takes on the farm problem next January.

I like these folks. They're big-hearted, friendly, eager to erase barriers between people and willing to consider new ideas. I really felt at home there—especially when Lady Bird and I visited a 300-acre farm near Monticello. The big black Angus and the Guerneys would have made us proud in Texas—and the chocolate cake melted in my mouth.

It was a good—and productive —trip. Three very tangible results came out of it.

1. Senator Kennedy spelled out once and for all his convictions that the next Vice President will play a decisive role in Government affairs.

This is what he said in his
press conference:

"We are very fortunate to have Senator Johnson's assistance in carrying out the program. If we are successful in November, I think Sen. Johnson can play a role as Vice President greater, more influential, and with greater benefit to the public than any Vice President in recent times.

2. Southern leaders evidenced a quality of unity unlike any we have seen for a long time. I came away from Nashville convinced that the people of this country want to be free Americans together before we want anything else, and that they wanted me to speak to them not as a Southerner to a South-erner or a Protestant to a Protestant, but as an American to Americans.

3. Senator Kennedy and I cemented our relationship as running mates. There is no tension between us and we are not
"poles apart" as our opponents insinuated in Chicago. Instead, we are united in a common purpose of opening the New Frontiers of America and bringing to all of our people a better life in the days ahead.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT WARNS OF DANGERS OF "STAPH"

Almost as quickly as you can say, "please pass the potato salad," a tiny microscopic speck of bacterial life can make a shambles of that great American summer time institution, the picnic.

Called staphylococci—"staph"
or short—these pernicious bits of living matter are said by health authorities to be by far the most common cause of food poisoning. Closely related strains called "epidemic" or "hospital" strains, have caused fatal infections in hospital nurseries.

About the picnic—if you're careless in preparing the food, staph may invade and multiply in items on the bill of fare. The ham, for instance, or the chicken salad. Or the cream-filled layer cake. In a matter of hours, once eaten, they can turn a strong man into a cramped, tormented weakling.

But it's easy to prevent this fun-wrecking development: simply keep the foods chilled between the time of preparation and service, and serve as soon as possible.

State health authorities are caused by food poisoning isn't quick to point out that staphlimited to summer nor to picnics, but can occur when ever the conditions are right regardless of the time or place. Conditions are more apt to be right during summer when outdoor eating is in vogue and staph can team up with the heat and lack of refrigeration to spoil food.

As a point of academic interest it isn't the organisms themselves that do the damage,

but a toxin produced by adult organisms. Admittedly the point of little consolation to the wrung-out victim, but it does provide a clue to preventing other cases.

Staph germs are so widely distributed in nature—in nose and throat secretions, in exu-date of boils and carbuncles, on skin and clothing, in the very air—that there is little chance of avoiding them completely. The trick is to keep them from growing and multiplying so they cannot produce the toxin.

Refrigeration is the key to stunning staph germs. They can't grow in cold temperatures, but thrive in bountiful profusion at room temperature.
There are, refrigerate susceptible foods at 40 degree temperatures. Use shallow pans so the ingredients will chill through.

Keep these facts in mind
when you plan the next picnic.
Remember, there is no point in contending with more than the usual ants and wasps. (A weekly feature of the Health Education Division, State Department of Health.)

Fish Hatcheries provide the right kinds and numbers of fish to pond owners for stocking purposes, says Ed Cooper,
extension wildlife specialist, and he strongly advises against making any additions to the pond. The addition of fish from rivers, other pond or the min-now bucket, he says, is a mighty good way to ruin fishing in a farm pond.

HAMLIN WINS BRAZOS VALLEY CHAMPIONSHIP

The Hamlin Semi-Pro baseball team carried home the Brazos Valley League championship Sunday afternoon by defeating Knox City, 9-6. The two teams went into the game tied, with Knox City holding a win over Hamlin and losing to Aspermont.

Stan Austin was the winning pitcher. He gave up only two hits in the first seven innings and then Knox City rallied in the eighth with five runs on four hits. Mike Bond pitched the final one and one-third innings and gave up one run on two hits.

Don Adair led the Hamlin batters with two singles and a double in five trips. Austin had a home run with one on in the sixth.

The club finished the season with a 13-3 record. The club recently participated the State Tournament held at Lubbock where they won one and lost two.

They played their best game of the season in losing to the Lubbock Rangers, 6-5, in the opening game. The Rangers won the tourney.

In the second game, Hamlin defeated Seagraves, 3-2, but couldn't get going in the third game as the Lubbock Rebels won 10-0.

Managers Bill Adair and Benny Ford and each member of the team expressed their thanks to everyone who contributed to the fund and made it possible for the team to go to the tourney.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Duncan, Jerry, Connie Jo and Joey returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Washington, D. C., and other points of interest. In Washington they attended a three day convention for Piggy Wiggly managers, employees and their families. On their return home they visited in Bristol, Virginia, with Rev. and Mrs. Calvin Bailey, a former Baptist pastor here.

'SOUTH PACIFIC' STARTS WEEK ENGAGEMENT AT DRIVE IN

Rodgers and Hammerstein's Pulitzer prize-winning musical, "South Pacific," will have its De Luxe Color motion picture premiere at the Hamlin Drive In Theatre on Saturday.

About 90 per cent of "South Pacific" was shot on one of the most picturesque spots in the Pacific—Kauai—known as the "Garden Island of the Hawaiians," the remainder was completed on the Twentieth Century-Fox lots in Hollywood.

The screen version was directed by Joshua Logan, who also directed the original stage production which opened on Broadway in 1949 and ran for almost five years.

The same creative team, responsible for "South Pacific's" theatre production, brought it to the screen under Buddy Adler's producing guidance. . . . Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II and Joshua Logan. The now-famous music and lyrics, introduced ten years ago, sound as fresh as ever on the screen.

"South Pacific," adapted from James Michener's best-selling novel, "Tales of the South Pacific," is the love story of a U. S. Navy nurse, played by Mitzi Gaynor, during World War II, who falls in love with a French plantation owner, portrayed by Rossano Brazzi, on a Pacific island. A concurrent love story concerns a Marine officer (John Kerr) and a native girl, played by Frances Nuyen (who was specially picked for the role because of her Eurasian background and beauty.)

Critics have acclaimed "South Pacific" as one of the great musicals of all time. Much of "South Pacific's" romantic flavor was suggested by mood and conversation on the stage. Bali-Hai, the enchanted island, for example, and the boat's tooth tribal ceremony are shown on the screen with all the color and authenticity of actual location shots.

'13 GHOSTS' HERE SUNDAY AT FERGUSON

It would be fair to say that Hollywood views with alarm, when ever producer-director William Castle make another picture; with alarm, with delight, and with happy applause.

Mr. Castle is the maker of such foreboding, fright-filled films as "The Tingler," "The House on Haunted Hill," "Macabre" and now opening Sunday at the Ferguson Theatre, "13 Ghosts." Like its predecessors, "13 Ghosts" is a picture with an entertainment gimmick, a pleasant piece of cinematic magic which adds to the suspense and excitement of what is always a good picture anyway. What the gimmick is in "13 Ghosts" will be seen by its audiences; film-drama promises only that it's a beaut!

Young Charles Herbert is starred in "13 Ghosts," along with Jo Morrow, Martin Milner, Rosemary DeCamp and Donald Woods. Along with it, must be added, the ghosts of a headless lion tamer, his lion, a chef who messes up a kitchen and a number of other miserable residents of the spirit world. These real "live" ghosts all haunt an ancient house inherited by museum professor Woods who moves in with his unsuspecting family. Young Herbert, a ghost lover from way back, finds himself right at home with the spectral spectacles; the rest of the family have trouble indeed.

Advance audiences report that "13 Ghosts" is a picture for the strong of heart, a film filled with excitement, suspense, drama and truly ominous activity. The prediction here is that a lot of people are going to look for ghosts a long time after they see "13 Ghosts," and with good reason.

William Castle produced and directed from Robb White's screenplay.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1960.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as so as to give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest, fix maximum rates of interest, and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation setting maximum rates of interest; providing that the rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum in contracts where no interest rate is agreed upon; providing for the right of appeal and trial de novo in the event any regulatory agency cancels or refuses to grant any permit; providing for the necessary election and the form of the ballots; and providing for the necessary proclamation and publication.
